

STONES IN THE GULF OF MEXICO

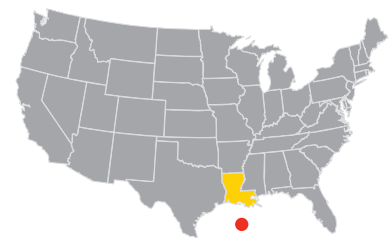

The floating production, storage and offloading (FPSO) facility for Stones will feature the world's deepest oil and gas production system with subsea infrastructure located 9,500 feet (2,896 meters) below the water's surface. The Stones project has completed more than 22 million hours of work with an outstanding safety record.

NEARLY
2,900
METERS DEPTH

MORE THAN 6 EMPIRE STATE BUILDINGS

KEY FACTS

200 MILES
SOUTH OF NEW ORLEANS
IN THE GULF OF MEXICO

ESTIMATED ANNUAL PEAK PRODUCTION OF 50,000 BARRELS OF OIL PER DAY

DISCONNECTABLE BUOY

